

Regulatory Compliance

Top Healthcare Regulatory Compliance Lawyers

Healthcare today is regulated by an “alphabet soup” of agencies enforcing an endless list of laws and regulations. We make it our business to understand state-specific requirements and federal Medicare, DEA, FDA, HIPAA and other regulatory issues. We tackle the most complex emerging issues in healthcare and life sciences regulatory compliance today, based on our involvement at a strategic and granular level in virtually every facet of the healthcare industry.

We have defended healthcare providers in investigations and actions before the widest range of federal and California state regulatory agencies. We combine specialized experience in a wide range of healthcare sectors with a proactive and attentive approach, making us the go-to law firm for healthcare regulatory matters. Clients hire us because we navigate the ever-evolving California and federal healthcare laws and regulations with the integrity, experience and insight healthcare providers cannot live without.
