

Insurance Billing and Reimbursement Complications Within the Addiction Recovery Industry

Join Nelson Hardiman and the American Addiction Treatment

Association (AATA) on May 25th for a free webinar titled “Addiction Treatment: Insurance Billing and Reimbursement Issues.” Insurance companies are increasingly conducting audits...What are the key issues they are raising to demand recoupment of fees and what can you do to prevent such inquiries?

Insurance companies are increasingly conducting reviews of behavioral health and substance abuse treatment program providers and are looking for cases of fraud and abuse. Their special investigation units are demanding the recoupment of fees paid to such programs based on lack of licensure, certification, and accreditation, questions regarding the appropriateness of claims, and questions regarding the adequacy of documentation for clinical services. What are the key issues insurance companies are raising to demand recoupment of fees from substance abuse treatment programs? What can programs do to prevent such inquiries? Join us for this webinar and you will learn:
