Legal Issues for Startups and Founders

Nelson Hardiman Partner Harry Nelson will be presenting at the IDEAS Digital Technology Conference on June 16, 2017.

IDEAS – a spark of soul, a measure of brilliance, an act of creation. Ideas are the inspiration, and the ignition, of human endeavour. IDEAS LA aims to capture the essence of our collective ingenuity in a fun and interactive setting. We are inspiring people to think deeper and more broadly by engaging with inventors and innovators tackling some of the most exciting challenges in the world today.

What to Expect at IDEAS LA: In addition to networking with the brightest minds and industry leaders in media, health and entertainment, you will be immersed in a multi-sensory experience! With interactive VR stations, intimate workshops lead by the best experts in their fields, and renowned speakers, this conference will keep you engaged the entire time! IDEAS Los Angeles also features fast growing startups across these industries. You will also have the opportunity to participate at our official awards ceremony, highlighting these amazing companies.
