Contracting with Physicians While Complying with DHCS' IMS Guidelines: Avoid Costly Mistakes!

Session Date & Time: April 30, 2018 at 10:00 am – 1:00 pm PST

Location: Nelson Hardiman Conference Facilities, West Los Angeles

Presenters: Kathryn F. Edgerton (Russo) , John A. Mills

Some of the seminar's highlights:

- A review of California's CPOM law and what it means for your program or your practice
- A clear understanding of the scope of permissible IMS versus prohibited practice of medicine at residential treatment facilities
- DCHS' guidelines and anticipated regulations for IMS
- The intersection of IMS and insurance reimbursement, and best practices to maximize reimbursement
- Best practices for IMS contracts and understanding the legal relationship between the residential treatment facility and the physician
- Best practices for credentialing practitioners of IMS
- Q&A with the presenters