

Understanding and Preparing for the Minefield of Payor and Government Audits and Investigations

Focused on exploring new and emerging modalities and proven approaches to substance abuse and co-occurring treatment, this conference highlights breakthroughs in complex mental health disorders and process addictions.

Harry Nelson, Esq. will be presenting on “Understanding and Preparing for the Minefield of Payor and Government Audits and Investigations,” which will offer practical guidance on risk management and educate about your rights as a provider when facing an addiction.