

Nelson Hardiman Adds 3 Healthcare Attorneys

The Daily Journal reported on our recent additions to our team, Christine Parkins Johnson, Regina Trainor, and Jonathan Stieglitz.

From the article:

Regina Trainor, Christine Parkins Johnson and Jonathan Stieglitz boost the firm's presence in health care and life sciences, aiming to take on more complex health care transactions, regulatory compliance and medical reimbursement matters.

"There is a nice symbolism in our having become Los Angeles' biggest health care and life sciences firm," said Harry Nelson, managing partner. "But the real story is that the best attorneys are joining our team because we offer a different vision of what it means to work collaboratively to solve the most complex problems in health care."

Read the article