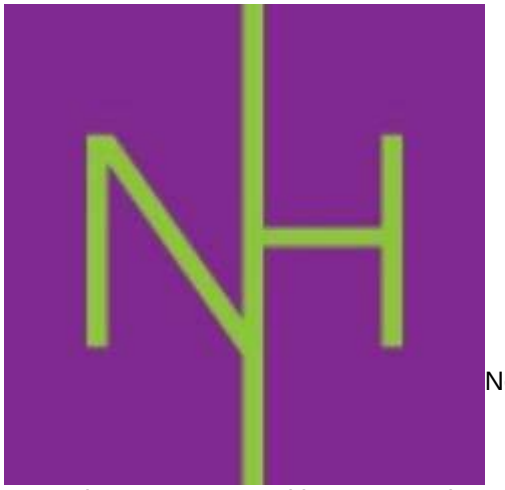
Nelson Hardiman named to the BTI Industry Power Rankings 2017: The Law Firms with the Best Client Relationships



Nelson Hardiman is proud to announce that we have been named to the BTI Industry Power Rankings 2017: The Law Firms with the Best Client Relationships. Led by Michael Rynowecer, author of The Mad Clientist blog, BTI Consulting Group is widely respected for its intensive, data-driven approach and insights into legal services. BTI conducts thousands of independent, in-depth interviews with C-level executives and general counsel of business organizations to understand the way that the legal marketplace and lawyer-client relationships are evolving.

Based solely on unsolicited direct feedback from corporate clients, BTI honored Nelson Hardiman by placing us on the 2017 Honor Roll of Recommended firms in Health Care. The key factors in this honor were the number of healthcare clients who described Nelson Hardiman as their core, primary legal provider, and the fact that clients recommend Nelson Hardiman first to peers in an unprompted manner.

“We are humbled by the recognition from our clients,” said Managing Partner Harry Nelson, “and above all by the trust placed in us with sensitive healthcare disputes, transactions, and regulatory challenges. “This recognition inspires us to work harder for our clients.”
