

Coffee & Conversation with Author Harry Nelson & Rabbi Jason Weiner

At a time when the U.S. is grappling with one of the most lethal public health emergencies in its history — the opioid crisis — lawyer and author Harry Nelson has emerged with a Jewish perspective on the issue. On June 6th, please join him, Beit T'Shuvah Founder and Clinical Director Harriet Rossetto, and Rabbi Jason Weiner for Coffee & Conversation to discuss a Jewish communal response that plans to transform people into leaders by arming them with the awareness, language, and skills to address the crisis at its core. You won't want to miss this fascinating and timely dialogue!

A light breakfast will be served. Dietary laws observed.

Coffee & Conversation is a quarterly breakfast series hosted by our Community Engagement Strategic Initiative that covers civic issues of the day in an intimate setting.

Space is limited — RSVP today!
