

Experienced Healthcare Licensing and Medical Staff Attorney Sara Hersh Joins Nelson Hardiman

Nelson Hardiman is pleased to welcome Sara Hersh, an experienced healthcare attorney who joins us from Bonne, Bridges, Mueller, O'Keefe & Nichols. Sara brings over 25 years of unrivaled experience advising hospitals and protecting the licenses of health professionals. She has successfully defended hundreds of doctors, pharmacists, mental health and mid-level practitioners, and other professionals in licensing investigations and administrative hearings. Sara also represents hospitals and physicians in medical staff, peer review and credentialing matters. She brings not only decades of experience on healthcare liability and risk management issues, but the invaluable perspective of counseling healthcare facilities and individual professionals.

We are excited to be able to leverage Sara's expertise on behalf of our clients. She adds depth and experience that will allow Nelson Hardiman to continue to lead the way in providing smart, effective representation for healthcare providers and facilities. She can be reached at 310.20.2808 or shersh@nelsonhardiman.com.
