Nelson Hardiman is pleased to announce that Robert E. Fuller, Esq., FACHE has joined the law firm. Rob Fuller has served as an attorney for over 30 years, with extensive experience in trial and appellate work. He is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. Rob has significant experience in government relations at the county, state, and national levels, as well as commercial transactions, mergers, antitrust, corporate governance, financial restructuring, environmental, oil and gas, healthcare, labor, and white collar criminal defense. His national and international legal practice has also included turns in the executive suite, running an insurance brokerage, and serving as chief operating officer of a 199-bed Los Angeles hospital. Rob also has served as the chief restructuring officer in a 30-month chapter 11 proceeding for a healthcare business with over $150m in annual revenues. Rob is an alumnus of Dartmouth College and Fordham Law School, where he was Articles Editor of the Fordham International Law Review, and is admitted to practice in California, New York, and before the United States Supreme Court and most US Circuit Courts of Appeal.

In joining Nelson Hardiman, Rob will be a resource for Nelson Hardiman's healthcare clients, including physicians and health professional organizations, hospitals, healthcare systems and managed care organizations, pharmacies, long-term and behavior care facilities, as well as life sciences, healthcare technology, and healthcare finance companies. Since 2010, Nelson Hardiman has been continuously recognized as a Top Tier Firm in Regulatory and Administrative Law by US News and World Report, the only California firm of its size to be so designated. Rob shares Nelson Hardiman's commitment to providing advice and legal representation that is specialized, responsive, and proactive when it comes to healthcare-related issues, including fraud and abuse, licensing and certification, business disputes, reimbursement, contracting, peer review and credentialing, and administrative issues involving HIPAA, the ACA, Medicare, Medi-Cal, DEA, FDA, and other state and federal agencies regulating healthcare.

"We are thrilled to welcome Rob," said Nelson Hardiman partner Mark Hardiman. "Rob gives us a new depth in hospital operations and large-scale corporate transactional matters. His lifetime of diverse legal practice will be an enormous benefit to Nelson Hardiman clients."
