

Nelson Hardiman Obtains Court Order to Reverse Physician Termination

Nelson Hardiman attorneys obtained a successful result in a case involving the termination of a resident physician by a residency program. On behalf of the resident physician, Nelson Hardiman sought a court order to reverse the termination on the basis that the residency bylaws precluded the termination. After the submission of extensive briefs and a hearing on the merits, the Judge reversed the residency program's decision in its entirety.