PROFILE

Kathryn F. Russo is a member of Nelson Hardiman's Transactional and Compliance practice groups. Ms. Russo represents healthcare providers, including hospitals, physician organizations, long-term and behavioral care providers, telemedicine providers, and other healthcare-related organizations, in transactions and regulatory matters. Ms. Russo is a Certified Information Privacy Professional in U.S. private-sector privacy laws and regulations (CIPP/US).

Ms. Russo began her career as a finance associate in the New York office of Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, where she gained experience in transactional issues, including structured finance and securitizations. Ms. Russo also has extensive experience as debtor's counsel in complex bankruptcy cases.

In 2007, Ms. Russo was the recipient of the Pillsbury Stimson Pro Bono Fellowship and spent her fellowship year working for Human Rights Watch, one of the world's leading independent organizations dedicated to defending and protecting human rights.

Ms. Russo received her J.D. from Cornell Law School in 2007, where she was an editor of the Cornell International Law Journal. Ms. Russo served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Erithe A. Smith of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. Ms. Russo received her B.S., magna cum laude, in 2004 from the University of Southern California.

Ms. Russo is admitted to practice law in both California and New York.
